HOLT HEIRS SEEK FEE

Want Will of Forty Years Ago Set
Aside.

CLAIM FATHER WAS
OF UNSOUND MIND

Charge That Wm. A. Aldrich and James W. Austin Were Designing Persons.

After forty years of acquiescence in the will of Robert William Holt, the sons yesterday morning petitioned to have the instrument set aside as being "false and fabricated." The property involved amounts to about $37,000.

The suit is brought by John D. Holt, James R. Holt, John D. Holt Jr. and John F. Colburn and the parties made defendants are Hanakaulani Holt, P.
W. Holt, O. J. Holt Jr., Geo. H. Holt, C. J. Holt, Annie K. Kentwell, Elizabeth K. Richardson, Henry Smith trustee, Helen A. Holt in person and as guardian of the minor children of James R. Holt, deceased.

The petition relates that Robert W.
Holt died in Honolulu, Kingdom of Hawaii, July 6th, 1862, leaving three sons, the petitioners, J. R. Holt and J. D. Holt, and Owen J. Holt, the elder, now deceased, a daughter Elizabeth A.
Aldrich, now deceased, and the widow Watt Holt, also deceased.

On July 10, 1862, a will was admitted to probate by the Supreme Court which was offered by Wm. A. Aldrich and alleged to have been executed May 30, 1862. Aldrich was appointed as executor. Afterwards by proceedings in the Supreme Court Elizabeth Aldrich withdrew, receiving as her portion, one-quarter of the estate, to which she was entitled under the will. In succession to W. A. Aldrich divers persons have been appointed as administrators or trustees, and on June 4, 1900, Henry Smith was appointed to succeed Bruce Cartwright as trustee, and continues to exercise such authority.

It is further alleged that Owen J.
Holt the elder died intestate in 1891, leaving his property to his widow Ha-nakaulani Holt and his nine children, named as defendants above.

At the date of his death, according to the petition, the deceased Robert William Holt left considerable property, being the Ahupuaa of Makaha, Waianae, and of Halemano and Wahiawa in Waialua, this island, all of which has been kept intact excepting 33 acres of land at Halemano. All this land is said to be worth $10,000 and is held by Henry Smith as trustee together with certain personal property of the value of $27,000.

Interest in these lands is claimed as follows: John D. Holt Jr., as an heir at law of Robert W. Holt, and of his father Owen J. Holt; John F. Colburn as grantee upon certain trusts of the title of James R. Holt; James L. Holt as heir of his father Jas. R. Holt and uncle John D. Holt, and James R. Holt and John D. Holt as heirs at law of the testator Robert William Holt.

It is further represented that for a long time prior to the making of the alleged last will by said Robert William Holt, he was of "utterly unsound mind." And that he had then become and was, as a result of age and dissi-pation, a mental wreck, utterly unable and unfit to attend to or discharge ordinary or other matters of business; and that he was not then, or at any of said dates, possessed of sound or of disposing mind, and that he was not in a fit or proper or competent frame of mind or of memory to enable or to fit him to make or publish a will or testament, or to understand the terms of any written document.

It is alleged further that the document admitted to probate by the Supreme Court was not the will of Holt, nor was the codicil, but that they were and are "false and fabricated instruments which were imposed upon said Robert William Holt by designing persons while he was in a condition of mental incapacity to make or understand a will and when while such condition of incapacity was well known to said designing persons, to wit: James W. Austin, an attorney then living and practicing in Honolulu, by whom said will was drawn, and said William A.
Aldrich—then the son-in-law of said Robert W. Holt—* * * and other persons whose identity is not certainly known to your petitioners."

It is further alleged that on the day succeeding the date of the alleged will, a petition was presented to the Supreme Court alleging that Holt was unable to manage his own affairs and that his family might suffer. Robert Wm. Holt was therefore adjudged an incompetent and placed under the guardianship of his son-in-law Wm. A.

Aldrich. By reason of the facts related petitioners allege that Holt died intestate, and ask that the alleged will of Robert William Holt be revoked, cancelled, and annulled, and that the appointment of administrators, and Henry Smith as trustee be set aside.

The court is further asked to decree that Holt died intestate and that Carlos F. Long or some other suitable person should be appointed administrator.

The attorneys in the case are C. W.
Ashford, Carlos Long and E. H. Hart.

Besides the Holt will Mr. Ashford has also pending a will case started years ago, but not yet finished; this is a petition to revoke probate of the will of the late Kealiiahonui, a high chief, which if broken, would involve the title to the Ewa Plantation, the land having been owned by this chief; and also the Hialea Lawn premises, corner of Hotel and Richards streets.

do is to press the county and municipal bills in the next legislature. When this bill is passed it will be a great salvation for the people, and it will also mean prosperity.

We beg our readers to read our neighbor, the Advertiser. This neighbor of ours is really so very amusing, by reason of his absurdities in saying that Delegate Wilcox did not do a thing in Congress. We call our neighbor's attention to the records of Congress, and if they cannot find Delegate Wilcox's name and his bills, with his naked eyes, put your glasses on.

The Governor's Cabinet must be respected and also his secretary, and they should always appear with the Governor in every state occasion. We did not see this at the 4th of July ball. The members of the Cabinet and their wives were not there. I presume they were not good enough, as they and their wives are all Hawaiians. This is not right.

In the morning smarmy of July 29th in the locals, it said Wilcox and Ka-lauokalani, who were attempting Kauai for the Home Rule party, were reported to be meeting with much less enthusiasm than was accorded them in the first campaign. This little article of jealousy is not true, as we have received letters from Kauai that the people there received them all with open arms, and grand luaus were given everywhere in honor of the Delegate.
